

accept and receive_unmodified_ForAppendix.xlsx

1	mention of any Charge , which led me to tell the Merchants I had no authority to receive any fee or	emolument	, but that I should make the proper inquiry and inform them accordingly . I would therefore beg leave to observe that
2	State " . And it was not meant to be said that , though our officers were not to be allowed to receive	emoluments	, & c , , the members of the Legislature were not forbidden to do it . This would be strange doctrine . He would submit
3	army which may never be raised , and , until it is raised ; from which they will never receive any pay or	emolument	. if the appointments are to be made at this time , these are not the men , he apprehended , who will solicit
4	with this Company , other than what concerned the public , either directly or indirectly , or ever received one farthing profit or	emolument	, or the promise of any from them ; and my bond of indemnity expressly declares , that I have no interest , connection
5	thus acquainting you with the little Services which I have done for the Cause & People of America to receive any	Emolument	, but I hope for your Friendship in recommending me to the Congress , should they think proper to appoint any Person
6	was dismissed by court martial , dated March 26 , 1787 , read March 27 , praying to be reinstated so as to receive	emoluments	. Papers of the Continental Congress , No . 41 , Viii , pp . 218 - 219 . Report rendered April 10 , 1787 , and postponed May 22
7	situation , and that too in many cases where she must have been convinced , she would never receive any	emolument	. Such instances of disinterested philanthropy , ought not , in a publication of this sort to be omitted . They do
8	a special meeting of Directors , for the purpose of transacting business of the company . 6th No Director shall receive any	emolument	unless the same shall have been allowed by the Stockholders at a General meeting . But the Directors may appoint such
9	them when circumstances seem to have made them either not necessary or not desired , and that I shall not receive	emoluments	without performing the conditions to which they were annexed . I also wish them
10	1752 , the Faculty of Advocates chose me their Librarian , an office from which I received little or no	emolument	, but which gave me the command of a large library . I then formed the plan of writing the History of
11	apostates to their country , I hoped there were but few to be found in India willing to accept of any	emoluments	, however great , or any temptations , however specious , to fly from the standard of their country , and rally round that of