

Class 7: Possible Quiz Question (there may be additional quiz questions)

The following question is based on Gandhi, "Deceived By a Client." Assume that when Gandhi asked the magistrate to dismiss the case that Gandhi told the magistrate, "I know based on what my client told me previously that the testimony he has just given is false." If DR 7-102 of the ABA Model Code of Professional Responsibility as originally adopted in 1969 and subsequently amended in 1974 had applied at the time, which of the following statements would have been true:

- A. Gandhi should not have told the magistrate that his client had given false testimony without first giving his client the opportunity to rectify the situation.
- B. Gandhi was not permitted to tell the magistrate that his client's testimony was inconsistent with what the client had previously told Gandhi.
- C. Both A and B
- D. Neither A nor B
