

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class 5 - Possible Quiz Questions

1. Under the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct, a lawyer shall reveal information gained from a client if the lawyer reasonably believes such disclosure is necessary
 - A. to prevent serious injury
 - B. to prevent death
 - C. Both A and B
 - D. Neither A nor B

2. Assuming the New York law of evidence was the same as current Georgia law, when Armani first spoke to Garrow and Garrow's wife after Garrow was arrested for the Dombrowski killing, what information would NOT have been protected by attorney-client privilege?
 - A. Armani's advice to Garrow not to talk with anyone.
 - B. Information Armani learned from Garrow's wife.
 - C. Information given by Garrow to Armani, because Armani had not yet agreed to represent him.
 - D. All of the above

3. Hans Solo has appeared with his client before a Fulton County superior judge to request an ex parte order of protection against domestic violence for herself and 2 year old child. This is an emergency hearing held when the petition is filed and before the respondent is served.
 - A. Solo must tell the judge about any Georgia Supreme Court case decision that is directly adverse to the position he is arguing.
 - B. To his surprise, his client offers material testimony Solo knows is false. Solo cannot obtain the ex parte order without first having that testimony corrected either by himself or his client.
 - C. His client fails to tell the judge that there is a pending petition by respondent to claim paternity of the child. Solo must inform the tribunal of that petition
 - D. All of the above.

4. When Frank Armani and Francis Belge found the body of Susan Petz:
 - A. Armani told Belge they should tell the parents of Petz what they had found.
 - B. Belge covered up the body so it would be difficult to see.
 - C. Armani told Belge they couldn't say a word to anyone without Garrow's permission.
 - D. They agreed not to look for the body of Alicia Hawk